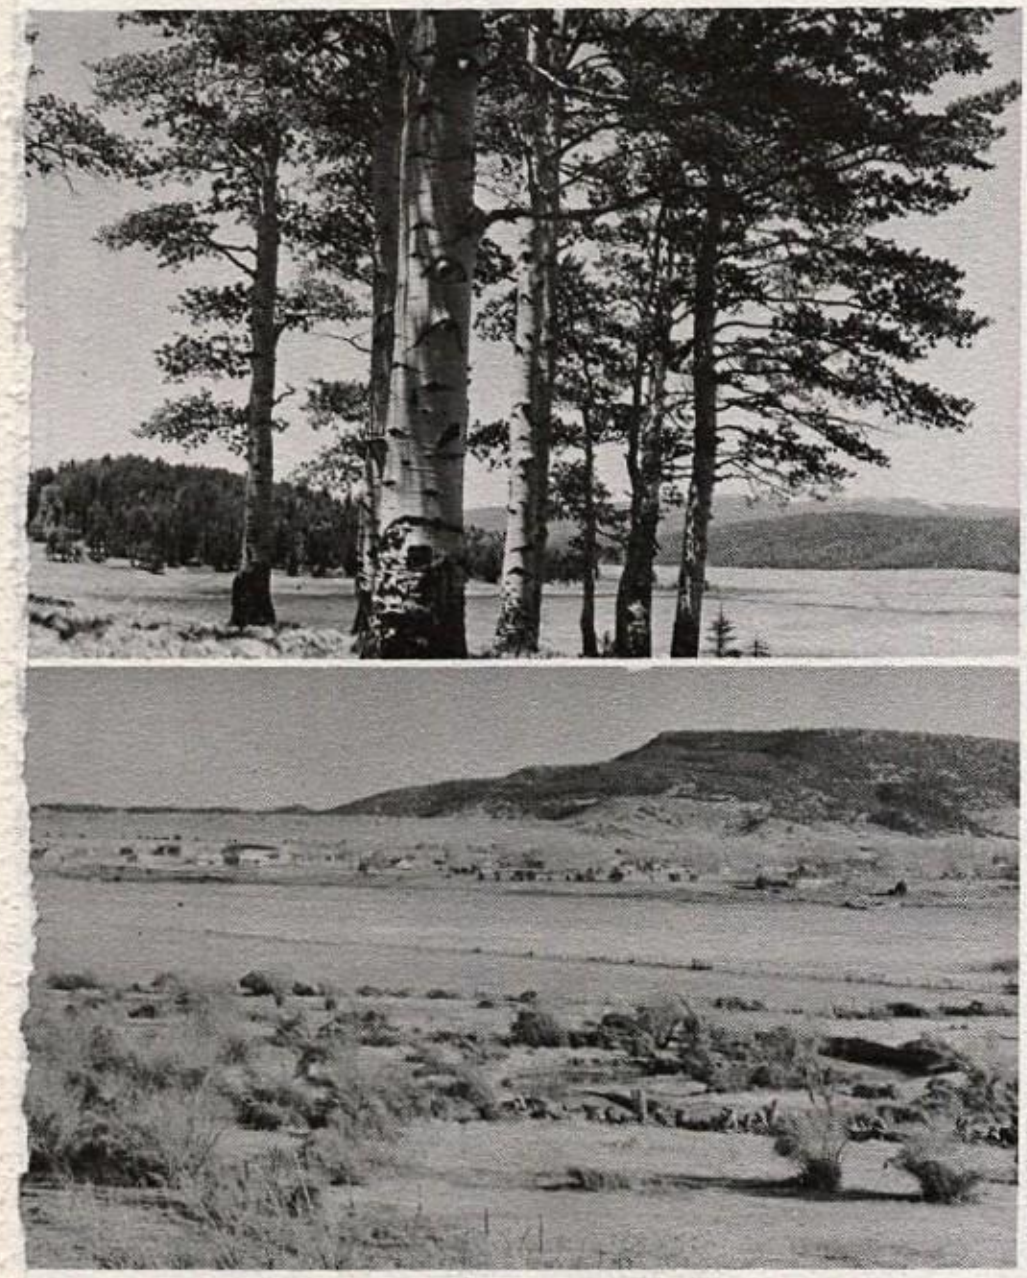
THE ELK

The 1960 Elk

A Song of the Seasons.

Sing a song of Spring-time,
The world is going round,
Blown by the south wind:
Listen to its sound.
"Gurgle: goes the mill-wheel,
"Cluck" clucks the hen;
And it's O for a pretty girl
To kiss in the glen.

Sing a song of summer,
The world is nearly still,
The mill-pond has gone to sleep,
And so has the mill.
Shall we go a-sailing,
Or shall we take a ride,
Or dream the afternoon away
Here, side by side?



Sing a song of Autumn,
The world is going back;
They glean in the corn-field,
And stamp on the stack.
Our boy, Charlie,
Tall, strong, and light:
He shoots all the day
And dances all the night.

Sing a song of Winter,
The world stops dead;
Under snowy coverlid
Flowers lie abed.
There's hunting for the young ones
And wine for the old,
And a sexton in the churchyard
Digging in the cold.

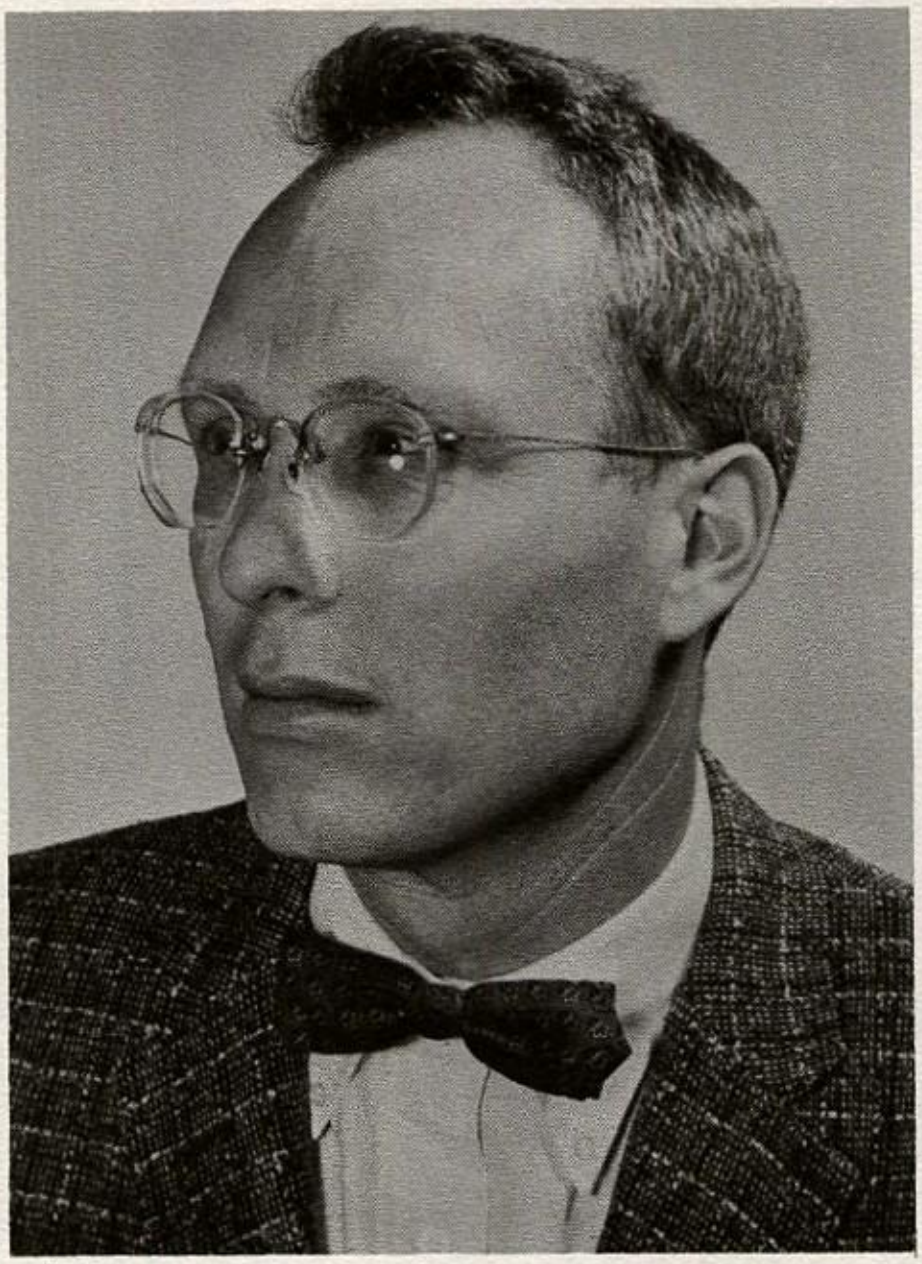
Dedication



This 1960 ELK is dedicated with pleasure to our very good friend and principal, Mr. James K. Clark. The following poem, written by Mrs. Edna Johnson, contains the sentiments of the entire staff.

THE SEASONS PASS

He thinks back on the years that he's been here
The plans he's made, the friends he's had.
The places dear, both far and near
That he has gone to accomplish things.

The boys and girls who have come and gone
Taking with them, memories of him.
And this, our school for days of fun
As well as for work variously done.

He looks ahead to busy years
Among the young folks of our land
And crushes to earth his transient fears
That aught will mar his rosy dreams.

He's grown in stature day by day
By meeting his trials and mastering them
And now he sees in gay display,
The losses and gains of future times.

"The pine trees stand so lonely
In the North where the high winds blow,
They sleep: and the whitest blanket
Wraps them in ice and snow."

* --Heinrich Hiene--

Administration

Principal's Message

SEASONS

The seasons depicted in this book are mindful of the cycle of growth and development that your minds and bodies undergo during the cycle of learning here at Round Valley High School.

The climate of learning is created by your teachers so that you may grow mentally and acquire those parts of our culture necessary to bridge the gap to a brighter future for you, for our country and our world.

I congratulate you, Seniors of Round Valley High School, for working to the end of the season and wish you every success as you seek further training or choose new endeavors.

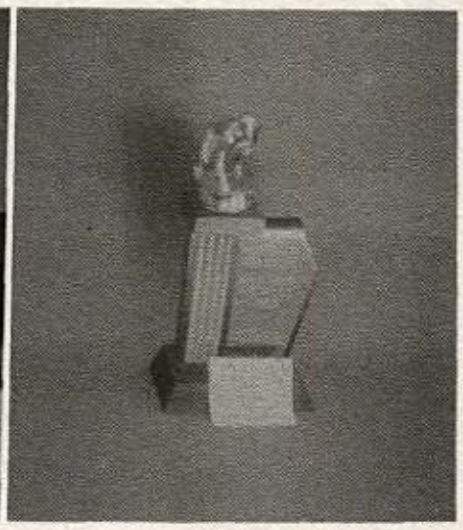
In Appreciation

The staff of the 1960 ELK would like to express its appreciation to Mr. and Mrs. Art Eagar for the many things they have done for Round Valley High School. Art has given tirelessly of his time and efforts to help us produce the beautiful scenery shots in this book. Clarcia has faithfully reported to the local and state newspapers the results of athletic contests at our school, and supported our teams, win or lose!



Bob Martin injured in McNary game.

Arthur Eagar receives trophy for 1959 Outstanding Lineman on the R.V.H.S. football team. Trophy is presented by Mr. Merle Harper of Western Drug Company at Thanksgiving Assembly, November 25, 1959.

KING OF SPECTATORS

Cleve Wiltbank, who had missed only three home games in 35 years, was crowned King of the Spectators in half-time ceremonies at the Page--Round Valley game on December 11, 1959.

It is with a great deal of pleasure that the Cheerleader-Pom-Pon section of this 1960 ELK is dedicated to Cleve Wiltbank.

"Sometimes hath the brightest day a cloud: And after summer evermore succeeds Barren winter, with its wrathful nipping cold; So cares and joys abound, as seasons fleet."

--William Shakespeare--

As we near the end of another school season, I pause a moment to recall to mind that high school has afforded us many matchless gifts--friendship, knowledge, and happiness.

Those of us who are graduating, will also long remember the obstacles that we have had to overcome in the development of personality and character--obstacles that would not have been surmounted without the encouragement of our teachers.

I urge you underclassmen to profit from the many opportunities which high school offers.
